Polish Genealogical Society of Massachusetts Upcoming Talks

Free admission, bring a friend!

Now I've Found It, What Does It Say? Foreign Languages and Genealogical Research

By Prof. Jonathan Shea
Sunday, May 21, 2017, 2:00 p.m.
Framingham Public Library

This lecture will examine the various phonetic and grammatical features of record keeping languages used in nineteenth century partitioned Poland. Special attention will be given to features of the Slavic languages which confuse the English speaker. Various frequently encountered document formats, such as birth, marriage and death records will be viewed in Latin, Polish and Russian. A sample document will be examined in depth and translated. In addition phonetic features of Polish and English will be reviewed so that participants will gain a greater understanding of why and how surnames have been misspelled in the US. This lecture is co-sponsored by the Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Boston.

The History of Polish Heraldry
By Marek Lesniewski-Laas, J.D., Honorary
Consul for the Republic of Poland
Thursday, June 22, 2017, 6:30 p.m.
Chicopee Public Library

Our speaker for our summer meeting will be Mr. Marek Lesniewski-Laas, the Honorary Consul for the Republic of Poland. The title of his talk is The History of Polish Heraldry. He will cover the concept of heraldry in Poland, noble and state heraldry, heraldry among Polish Jewry, the structure of the Polish nobles, how the nobility differed from other European countries and other features. The talk is illustrated with many colorful heraldic examples that were significant in the history in Poland. One might see the crest that Babcia spoke of!

Crossing the Ocean: Researching Family History in the Polish Archives

By Prof. Jonathan Shea
Saturday, October 28, 2017, 1 p.m.
Chicopee Public Library

This presentation will examine the record keeping practices in all three partitions and show frequently encountered formats of sample vital records of birth, death and marriage. Additional record types will also be discussed such as parish censuses, military draft lists, inventories, cemetery research, and others. Polish websites which contain indexes and digitized records will also be presented. The location of archival materials and access policies to archival collections will be discussed as well.

Update to Western Massachusetts Families in 1790 by Molly Rogers (April 6, 2017)

American Ancestors Data Base News (NEGHS) has added six new sketches to Western Massachusetts Families in 1790. This database focuses on families listed in the 1790 census in historic Berkshire and Hampshire counties, an area which includes parts of modern Franklin and Hampden counties as well. Sketches are submitted by NEHGS researchers and members and edited by Helen Schatvet Ullmann, CG, FASG.

If you are particularly interested in this area of research, you may want to consult one of our newest publications--the 3rd volume of Western Massachusetts Families in 1790!

The following sketches are new to this update:

Martin Chamberlin \(Dalton\)

Amasa Cranson \(Ashfield\)

Elisha Mack \(Montague\) (Elisha Mack may be of special interest to LDS genealogists--he was the brother of the grandfather of Joseph Smith.)

Abner Phillips \(Ashfield\)

Lemuel Phillips \(Ashfield\)

Philip Phillips \(Ashfield\)

John Shattuck \(Conway\)

Please note: This database is available to Individual-level and above NEHGS members only. Consider membership .

Database Tip: On the transcript page, click the plus sign next to any person's name. You can download a PDF of the entire sketch rather than having to download each page image separately.
